Notes:

- 1 The accompanying consolidated financial information has been prepared by using partially simplified accounting methods from those adopted for the latest fiscal year.
- 2 From this period, a method of calculation of depreciation was changed due to a change of Japanese tax rule. This change decreased operating income by 2.4 billion yen, income before income taxes and minority interests in consolidated subsidiaries by 2.7 billion yen, and net income by 1.7 billion yen.
- 3 From this period, three consolidated subsidiaries were reclassified to reflect performance more clearly in its strategic business areas. The figure of the First Quarter of the Previous Fiscal Year in the segment information was adjusted to the change.
 - One of them was reclassified from the Functional Products to the Petrochemicals Segment.
 - Two of them were reclassified from Others to the Petrochemicals Segment.
- The Corporation and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries maintain their accounting recorded in Japanese yen. The U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for convenience and have been translated, as a matter of arithmetical computation only, at the rate of 123 yen to US$1, the approximate exchange rate prevailing in the Tokyo foreign exchange market at the end of June 2007. This translation should not be construed as a representation that the yen amounts actually represent, or have been, or could be, converted into U.S. dollars at this, or at any other rate.

3. Business Performances and Financial Position

(1) Business Performances

Consolidated Performance for the First Quarter of the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2008 (From April 1, 2007 to June 30, 2007)

In the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008, the Japanese economy continued to expand gently benefiting from factors such as brisk export driven by continuous economic boom, in mainly EU and East Asian countries, active capital investment reflecting high corporate profit, and strong personal spending.

The business environment of the Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Group (MCHC Group) remained firm owing to both domestic and overseas demands while crude oil and naphtha prices surged.

Under these circumstances, the consolidated business results for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008, resulted as follows. The net sales increased by ¥58.7 billion (9.7% increase) to ¥665.0 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year; operating income increased by ¥4.0 billion (13.6% increase) to ¥33.4 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year; ordinary income increased by ¥2.0 billion (5.7% increase) to ¥36.9 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year; and net income decreased by ¥1.1 billion (5.2% decrease) to ¥20.7 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year.

(2) Overview of Business Segments

Petrochemicals

Net sales of the segment for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008 increased by ¥54.2 billion (19.4% increase) to ¥334.3 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year. Operating income, increased by ¥6.3 billion (350.5% increase) to ¥8.1 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year, owing to an increase in the gain of the price difference in inventory.

The production volume of ethylene, a major basic raw material for petrochemicals was 280 thousand tons, the same level of the same period previous fiscal year.

Net sales of the segment increased benefiting the fact that businesses in basic petrochemicals, industrial chemicals, and synthetic resins progressed favorably by the active demands in both domestic and overseas markets, while crude oil and naphtha prices turned from the downward trend in the third and the fourth quarter of previous fiscal year to upward trend in this period. The MCHC Group made an effort to correct sales prices in respond to surging the raw material prices.

Major actions taken for the Petrochemicals Segment during the first quarter (from April 1, 2007 to June 30, 2007) are as follows:

- Mitsubishi Chemical Corporation decided to increase production capacity of propylene at the Kashima Plant. (April)

Performance and Functional Products

Net sales of the segment for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008 increased by ¥2.6 billion (1.2% increase) to ¥225.6 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year. Operating income, increased by ¥0.4 billion (2.8% increase) to ¥14.1 billion compared to the same period previous fiscal year.

In the area of information and electronics related products, with regard to the DVDs, net sales continued to expand, despite the price fall. With regard to printing supplies, such as organic photo conductor (OPC) drums, pulverized toner, and chemical toner, net sales were the same level of the same period previous fiscal year. In the carbon businesses, net sales slightly decrease primary due to decline in the export price of blast furnance coke compared with the same period previous fiscal year.

In the Functional Products businesses, all types of films including composite films and sheets progressed favorably, especially in the polyester films for liquid crystal displays and plastic injection moldings for electronic applications such as liquid crystal television. Both construction materials including composite materials and industrial application materials such as carbon fibers and alumina fibers increased net sales at a satisfactory pace.

Major actions taken for the Performance and Functional Products Segments during the first quarter (from April 1, 2007 to June 30, 2007) are as follows:

- Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation decided the ratio of share exchange effective on October 1, 2007 for the outstanding shares of Mitsubishi Plastics, Inc.
 which Mitsubishi Chemical Corporation was unable to acquire through tender offer from February to March 2007: one share of common stock of Mitsubishi Plastics, Inc. will be exchanged for 0.41 shares of Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation.
 (April)
- Mitsubishi Chemical Functional Products, Inc. launched Yuka Proof, a polypropylene-based long tarpaulin lining for truck floor. (April).
- Mitsubishi Chemical Functional Products, Inc. completed a new production line for ALPOLIC/fr, a fire-rated aluminum composite material with a noncombustible mineral core at its subsidiary in the US, Mitsubishi Chemical FP America, Inc. (April)
